

Canadian Catholic Bioethics Institute

presents the
Cardinal Ambrozic Lecture Series

Friday, March 4, 2005

2:00 pm, Fr. Madden Hall, Carr Hall
University of St. Michael's College
100 St. Joseph Street, Toronto

Euthanasia: Why Not?

John Keown, the Kennedy Institute of Ethics, Georgetown University, Washington, D.C.

John Keown, D.Phil, Ph.D., holds the Rose F. Kennedy Chair in Christian Ethics. With a degree in law from the University of Cambridge, he received his doctorate from the University of Oxford. His research has been cited widely, in particular by the U.S. Supreme Court (in its decision on physician-assisted suicide), by the English Court of Appeal (in the conjoined twins case, 2000); and by the House of Lords Select Committee on Medical Ethics. He has authored or edited several books and articles, including "Abortion, Doctors and the Law" (1988), and "Euthanasia Examined: Ethical, Clinical and Legal Perspectives" (1995) and "Euthanasia, Ethics and Public Policy: An Argument against Legalization" (2002).

. Following the lecture will be workshops on health care issues and legal issues related to euthanasia. Space is limited in these workshops.

*This lecture is open to all interested persons
To register for the lecture and/or a workshop, please call 416-926-2335 or email (bioethics.usmc@utoronto.ca)*

There is no charge for admission

This lecture is being co-sponsored by the St. Joseph Moscati Toronto Catholic Doctors' Guild and the Thomas More Lawyers' Guild of Toronto.